

EVERYWHERE'S NEWS IN TABLOID FORM

Springfield, Mo.—Smudge pots being used in Ozark orchards to prevent freezing of ungathered fruit.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Miss Harriet Verndon, 21, found dead in her suite in Mission Apartments. Marks on throat indicate she was strangled.

Little Rock, Ark.—Teaching of sex hygiene in public schools condemned by Arkansas state health conference.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Gas that accumulated under coffee urn exploded when Paul Volz lit it. Volz will lose eyesight.

Austin, Tex.—Great damage feared for small grain crops from cold-est weather of season.

New Orleans, La.—Henry Leuker arrested for writing love letters to Jane Addams, Chicago. Room resembled small arsenal.

Buffalo, N. Y.—Fire caused $30,000 damage to Mount Mercy Academy.

Rock Island, Ill.—Wm. Haak, who was to have been married this evening to Miss Laura Schmid, South Rock Island, killed by heavily-charged guy wire.

Washington.—800 invitations will be issued to White House wedding of Jessie Wilson, president's daughter.

New Haven, Conn.—Pres. Elliott, New Haven Railroad, announces that by Dec. 31 every Pullman car will be of all-steel.

Detroit.—“They tickled me until I was crazy,” was defense offered by Henry Perry, barber, to charge of murdering Al McGregor, proprietor of roadhouse.

New York.—Edward Mulry had needle he swallowed 50 years ago removed by surgeons today.

Detroit.—Too much ice cream and ice water are fast ruining digestion of Americans, according to Dr. Adolph Schmidt, professor of internal medicine at Halle University, Germany.

Washington.—Postoffice plans stamp book containing 24 one-cent and 24 two-cent stamps to sell for 73 cents.

Albert Lea, Minn.—Martin Reiber fatally shot his father, Fred Reiber, 60, in quarrel over will of mother.

Washington.—Treasury officials state ex-Pres. Taft is success as lobbyist. Plea to Sec'y McAdoo resulted in award of postoffice and courthouse building contract at New Haven to Chas. McCaul Co. of Philadelphia.

Trenton, N. J.—U. S. Judge Joseph Cross dead.

Ray, N. D.—D. T. Dillon, farmer shot down last Tuesday by murderer who killed Dillon's wife and daughter, died last night.

Washington.—Big financial interests held responsible for mismanagement of railroad enterprises by National Ass'n of Railway Commissioners.

Passaic, N. J.—Avenging loss of wife's affections, Jos. Fuigala shot and killed Louis Potanti.

Hammond, Ind.—Gertrude Hunt was granted absolute divorce from James Hunt on assertion that he hadn't taken bath since their marriage, four years ago.

Sterling, Ill.—Jos. Knox suinig family doctor for $20,000, alleging doctor left yard of gauze in his internals after operation.

Danville, Ill.—John Savage fatally wounded fiancée and killed himself because girl insisted for fourth time on postponing wedding.

Rome.—Duke of Abruzzi, former suitor of Miss Katherine Elkins, cabled congratulations when informed that she had married “Billy” Hitt of Washington.

London.—Policemen have formed union known as Metropolitan Police Trade Union.

Paris.—Peasant plowing at Moulins uncovered two viper's nests and killed 400 of reptiles in fight for his life.

London.—“Aboard the ship they call me Batty,” Prince George of Battenberg is said to have told embarrassed matron at a function who con-